

WILLIS AND NATHAN RETURN.

The Rivals Won't Talk of Their Visit to Washington.

Nathan's Methods Causing a Revolt in the Eighteenth Ward.

Naval Officer Theodore B. Willis and Internal Revenue Collector Ernst Nathan returned to Brooklyn to-day from Washington, whither they both went by a strange coincidence on the same day.

Nathan and Willis are leaders of the opposing factions in the local Republican ranks, and recently engaged in a bitter struggle for the leadership of the machine. The rumor went forth a few days ago that Secretary Tracy had at last taken a hand in the fight, and although it was strenuously denied by members of both factions, the story obtained partial corroboration in the removal of George E. England from his position in the construction department of the Navy-Yard. Mr. England is a delegate to the General Committee from the Eighteenth Ward, is Assistant Secretary of that body, and in the recent fight for delegates worked with the Nathan people.

The claim of interference from Washington was met with the assurance that Mr. England's suspension was merely a personal matter between him and his superior.

Both Willis and Nathan had kept very quiet about their proposed trips, but fate is said to have been kind to them, for they were together on the same train to the Capital. However, that may be, it is stated with certainty that the two factions of the gentlemen Mr. Willis immediately sought the aid of Secretary Tracy, his warm friend and fellow-worker, and that the latter, in the recent fight for delegates worked with the Nathan people.

Neither word of the object of his trip was given by Mr. Nathan, nor did he report this morning, but rumor has it that there is something heavy in the air. The Republican Central Club and the Democratic Club are both active in the city, and the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are said to be combining. Nathan's methods, they claim, are costing the party 5,000 votes every year. Probably the most important result of the factional fight is noticeable in the newly appointed Twenty-eighth Ward, where voters are now being controlled. Although the Twenty-eighth Ward is said to be that of Capt. J. B. Carroll, a prominent and lifelong Republican, and it is followed by the signatures of sixty-two other late Republicans.

VICTIMS OF SURFACE CARS.

A Newsboy Knocked Under the Wheels in Park Row.

Michael Fiori, eleven years old, a newsboy, of 53 Mulberry street, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death by a fourth avenue horse-car directly in front of the Pulitzer building at 125 West Street, when he was run over by William Robinson, conductor, and Cornelius Sullivan, driver, was going south when Michael attempted to cross the track right under the horse's nose. He was knocked down and the horses passed over him, but Driver Sullivan stopped the car just as the boy's cheek was grazed by a wheel.

Thereafter, the car was stopped, and the boy got out from under the car and a policeman took him to Chambers Street Hospital. He could walk, but complained of a pain in the side. No arrests were made.

It was said at the New York Hospital this morning that Miss Hannah A. Woods, of 300 West 11th street, was run over by a Broadway car at Nineteenth street last night and trampled by the horses, with very badly hurt, however, and her nervous system received a shock which may have serious consequences.

Miss Woods, with another lady, both guests at the Continental Hotel, had attended the performance at Palmer's Theatre. After it was concluded they boarded the car to return to the hotel. Miss Woods declares that she told the conductor to stop at Twentieth street, but he did not stop the car until near Nineteenth street.

As the ladies stepped off the car an uptown car was seen close by, and Miss Woods's companion ran to the sidewalk crying, "Look out!" Miss Woods either did not hear the warning or did not heed it. As soon as she stepped to the street the horses were upon her. She was knocked down and was trampled under the animals' hoofs.

At the hospital it was learned that she had sustained contusions of the head, spine and limbs. She was hysterical from the shock.

The car-driver, Thomas Maxwell, of 1310 Second avenue, was looked up in the West Tenth street station.

In Jefferson Market Court this forenoon he was admitted to bail for $10,000, and committed to-day. He was taken there last night suffering from a scalp wound received by being knocked down by a butcher's horse, driven by Max Scholtz, of 71 Eleventh street. The accident occurred at 115 West Street, and Third avenue, while the Professor was endeavoring to cross the street.

Prof. Ware is a famous consulting architect. He was formerly Professor of Architecture in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and has been a member of Columbia's Faculty since 1881. He is sixty years of age.

BUNCO MAN O'BRIEN GUILTY.

To Be Sentenced To-Morrow for Doing Mr. Peck Out of $10,000.

ALBANY, March 25.—Thomas O'Brien, the buncoer, was found guilty of robbery in the third degree by the jury in the Court of Sessions this morning. He will be sentenced Monday.

The people have charged him with perjury, and an attempt will be made for a new trial by the defense.

O'Brien was lately extradited from England for trial on the charge of robbing John W. Peck $10,000. He is one of the most noted bunco operators and "card trick" men in America.

Robinson's Trial for Murder.

ALBANY, March 25.—The trial of William Robinson for the murder of Mrs. Johanna Russell on Oct. 18 last is likely to be concluded to-day. The evidence against him is circumstantially strong, and it is believed there will be a guilty verdict. The woman was found dead in her home, about a mile from the city, and Robinson was found asleep in an adjoining room.

Waylaid by a Gang.

ALBANY, March 25.—John J. Kelly, of 221 Front street, this city, while peacefully turning home last night, was waylaid, brutally assaulted and robbed by three members of the "Red Hot Gang."

Two of the men were named, but Patrick Carey, 32nd street, who also assisted Officer Matson, was arrested and held.

DID HE WANDER OFF AND DIE?

William Harold Johnson, 15 Years Old, Missing Since Feb. 16.

Known as "The Wild Boy," from His Mania for Hiding in the Brush.

William H. Johnson, fifteen years old, who disappeared from his home, 1307 Fulton street, Brooklyn, Feb. 16, has not yet been heard from, despite the efforts of the police of Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and neighboring cities, who have been constantly on the watch for him.

The rumor went forth a few days ago that Secretary Tracy had at last taken a hand in the fight, and although it was strenuously denied by members of both factions, the story obtained partial corroboration in the removal of George E. England from his position in the construction department of the Navy-Yard. Mr. England is a delegate to the General Committee from the Eighteenth Ward, is Assistant Secretary of that body, and in the recent fight for delegates worked with the Nathan people.

The claim of interference from Washington was met with the assurance that Mr. England's suspension was merely a personal matter between him and his superior.

Both Willis and Nathan had kept very quiet about their proposed trips, but fate is said to have been kind to them, for they were together on the same train to the Capital. However, that may be, it is stated with certainty that the two factions of the gentlemen Mr. Willis immediately sought the aid of Secretary Tracy, his warm friend and fellow-worker, and that the latter, in the recent fight for delegates worked with the Nathan people.

Neither word of the object of his trip was given by Mr. Nathan, nor did he report this morning, but rumor has it that there is something heavy in the air. The Republican Central Club and the Democratic Club are both active in the city, and the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are said to be combining. Nathan's methods, they claim, are costing the party 5,000 votes every year. Probably the most important result of the factional fight is noticeable in the newly appointed Twenty-eighth Ward, where voters are now being controlled. Although the Twenty-eighth Ward is said to be that of Capt. J. B. Carroll, a prominent and lifelong Republican, and it is followed by the signatures of sixty-two other late Republicans.

Neither word of the object of his trip was given by Mr. Nathan, nor did he report this morning, but rumor has it that there is something heavy in the air. The Republican Central Club and the Democratic Club are both active in the city, and the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are said to be combining. Nathan's methods, they claim, are costing the party 5,000 votes every year. Probably the most important result of the factional fight is noticeable in the newly appointed Twenty-eighth Ward, where voters are now being controlled. Although the Twenty-eighth Ward is said to be that of Capt. J. B. Carroll, a prominent and lifelong Republican, and it is followed by the signatures of sixty-two other late Republicans.

Neither word of the object of his trip was given by Mr. Nathan, nor did he report this morning, but rumor has it that there is something heavy in the air. The Republican Central Club and the Democratic Club are both active in the city, and the anti-Nathan forces in the Twenty-first Ward are said to be combining. Nathan's methods, they claim, are costing the party 5,000 votes every year. Probably the most important result of the factional fight is noticeable in the newly appointed Twenty-eighth Ward, where voters are now being controlled. Although the Twenty-eighth Ward is said to be that of Capt. J. B. Carroll, a prominent and lifelong Republican, and it is followed by the signatures of sixty-two other late Republicans.

MOURNING FOR DR. FARLEY.

The Funeral of the Aged Divine Fixed for Sunday Afternoon.

It has been decided that the funeral of the Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Farley, for twenty-two years pastor of the Church of the Savior in Brooklyn, and who died yesterday, shall be from the Church of the Savior next Sunday afternoon.

Many friends of Dr. Farley called at the house, 130 Pacific street, to present their condolences.

Dr. Farley was ninety-two years of age and was the oldest surviving graduate of Harvard University. He was born in 1800, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley entered Harvard College in his fourteenth year, and after graduating in 1822, he was ordained to the ministry in 1824. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

BROOKLYN NEWS IN BRIEF.

Notable Occurrences in The City of Churches.

Paragraphs That Photograph a Day's History.

Two Mean Young Thieves.

Who Stole Miss Doody's Fur Cape?

Burglars on Monitor Street.

Pigeon Thieves Behind Prison Bars.

One Says Pay, the Other Cries Fraud.

Seven New County Detectives.

Burial of Police Capt. Folk.

Mr. Nelson's Jewelry and Money.

The Checker Was Bogue.

Appropriated His Father's Money.

Dr. Shepard's Clothing Stolen.

Field to Go to Buffalo To-Day.

The Funeral of the Aged Divine Fixed for Sunday Afternoon.

It has been decided that the funeral of the Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Farley, for twenty-two years pastor of the Church of the Savior in Brooklyn, and who died yesterday, shall be from the Church of the Savior next Sunday afternoon.

Many friends of Dr. Farley called at the house, 130 Pacific street, to present their condolences.

Dr. Farley was ninety-two years of age and was the oldest surviving graduate of Harvard University. He was born in 1800, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley entered Harvard College in his fourteenth year, and after graduating in 1822, he was ordained to the ministry in 1824. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

THEY ALL WENT COURTING.

Mrs. Cooney Got a Warrant and Mrs. Briody Did the Same.

Two Black Eyes and Three Arrests Result from a Street Fight.

A neighborhood quarrel which has been increasing in interest at Thirty-fourth street and Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, for some weeks, culminated in a change of the several factions to the Butler Street Police Court this morning.

Mrs. Mary Cooney appeared at the court at an early hour to get a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Briody and James Dickson on charges of assault.

While she was consulting a lawyer Mrs. Briody arrived and, going straight to the clerk, got a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Cooney. The latter, finding that she had been forestalled, secured a warrant, sworn to by her niece, Stasia Shea, of 664 Twenty-fourth street, for the arrest of Dickson.

The warrants were served and the case continued. Mrs. Cooney was badly scratched and bruised. She says that Mrs. Briody's children and other children in the neighborhood have been in the habit of stoning her niece and annoying herself as she passed along the street. Dickson's boy was one of the offenders. Mrs. Cooney said, and Dickson always took his part when she was provoked against his conduct.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Cooney and her niece were walking along the street near Third and Third streets, when Dickson's son, one of Mrs. Briody's boys and two boys named Charles and John, came along. Mrs. Cooney said that when she got up she saw them dragging Stasia Shea, her niece, along the street, and that she was going to throw her down a cellar.

Stasia Shea, however, and a general struggle was going on, when two policemen came out of Dickson's saloon and arrested him. He was taken to the police station, and Mrs. Cooney was released. She does not know the names of the officers.

Seven New County Detectives.

Burial of Police Capt. Folk.

Mr. Nelson's Jewelry and Money.

The Checker Was Bogue.

Appropriated His Father's Money.

Dr. Shepard's Clothing Stolen.

Field to Go to Buffalo To-Day.

The Funeral of the Aged Divine Fixed for Sunday Afternoon.

It has been decided that the funeral of the Rev. Dr. Frederick A. Farley, for twenty-two years pastor of the Church of the Savior in Brooklyn, and who died yesterday, shall be from the Church of the Savior next Sunday afternoon.

Many friends of Dr. Farley called at the house, 130 Pacific street, to present their condolences.

Dr. Farley was ninety-two years of age and was the oldest surviving graduate of Harvard University. He was born in 1800, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley entered Harvard College in his fourteenth year, and after graduating in 1822, he was ordained to the ministry in 1824. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

Dr. Farley was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822. He was a member of the Harvard class of 1822, and was a member of the Harvard class of 1822.

REARREST PRISON GATES.

A Menace That Hangs Over Ferdinand Ward.

One Untried Indictment Is Still on File in the Federal Court.

Ferdinand Ward, whose term of imprisonment at Sing Sing expires April 30, may not get more than a snatch of liberty, for there is an untried indictment on file against him in the office of United States District-Attorney Mitchell.

The indictment is one of four returned against Ward when the collapse of the Marine National Bank came in 1884. Three indictments were dismissed by the courts on one ground or another, but the fourth, found Feb. 12, 1885, and charging Ward with being an accessory to and accomplice of James D. Fish in the appropriation of the funds of the Marine Bank, still hangs over Ward.

James D. Fish, partner of Ward, Gen. Grant and Ulysses Grant, Jr., in the firm of Grant and Ward, was convicted and sent to Auburn Prison.

Ward was not tried in the Federal Court, because the State of New York got hold of him and tried him for larceny in passing a worthless $7,000 check upon the Marine National Bank, with the help of Fish, who was President of that institution.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.

Ward is likely to be called upon by a United States grand jury when he emerges from the gates of Sing Sing prison, and to return to New York and suffer more years of imprisonment, and to suffer more years of imprisonment.